

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sentences: Combining Sentences

Combining sentences means putting two short sentences together to make one longer sentence. You can use and, but, or, or because.

Directions: Read the two sentences. Combine them into one sentence using the word in parentheses.

- 1 I like to ride my bike. (and)
I like to go to the park.
-

- 2 It was raining outside. (because)
We stayed inside and read books.
-

- 3 Do you want ice cream? (or)
Do you want cookies?
-

- 4 I have homework to do. (but)
I will finish it after dinner.
-

- 5 My dog is small. (and)
My dog is very fast!
-

Great job!

