Sentences: Run-On Sentences

A run-on sentence has two or more ideas that are squished together without the right punctuation.

Fix a run-on sentence by:

1 Adding a comma and a conjunction (and, but, or, so) between the ideas.

or

2 Making two separate sentences.

Directions: Read each run-on sentence. Rewrite it using one of the ways above. Write your answer on the line.

1 I like to read books I read every night before bed.

2 We went to the park it was a beautiful day.

3 He forgot his homework he will get a low grade.

4 My dog is small she likes to sleep on my bed.

5 It started to rain we ran inside.

6 I wanted ice cream I didn't have any money.

7 She practices soccer every day she wants to be on the team.

8 The movie was funny everyone laughed a lot.

Helpful Tip!

Look for two ideas that belong together. If they are joined wrong, it's a run-on!
